

International Conference on future coordination of digitisation

Luxembourg, Tuesday 21st and Wednesday 22nd June 2005

Centre Culturel de Rencontre, Abbaye de Neumünster

28, rue Münster, L-2160 Luxembourg

Tuesday 21st June 2005

08:30-09:00: Registration.

09:00-09:30: Welcome by the representative of the Luxembourg Ministry of Culture, the City authorities and the representatives of the European Commission.

- François BILTGEN Minister of Culture, Luxembourg

Session 1

Chairman: Guy DOCKENDORF, General Director, Ministry of Culture, Higher Education and Research, Luxembourg, actual President of the CAC

09:30-13:00

- Viviane REDING, Commissioner for information society and media, European Commission
- UNESCO – Paris, Division of the cultural heritage, sector of the culture,
- John MYERSCOUGH, International expert

The National Representatives Group: progress

- The Dynamic Action Plan
Guy FRANK and Maurizio LUNGHI, Ministry of Culture, Luxembourg
- Work plan for the UK Presidency
David DAWSON, Museums, Libraries and Archives Council, United-Kingdom
- NRG, new roles and tasks
Marius SNYDERS, Ministry of Education, Culture and Science, Department of Cultural Heritage, The Netherlands

The Luxembourg activities ... (I)

- eBnL National Library (BnL)
- Preservation of film, photo and sound: National Audiovisual Centre (CNA)
- City of Luxembourg, UNESCO World Heritage site, old quarters and fortresses

13:00-14:30: Lunch

Session 2

Chairman: Pierre SCHILLING, Director in charge of e-Luxembourg

14:30-16:30

Welcome by Claude Wiseler, Minister for Public Affairs

The Luxembourg activities ... (2)

- Data management of Natural History Collections: National Museum of Natural History (MNHN)
- IT security: everybody is concerned. Demonstration of a smart phone cracking via Bluetooth, CASES (Ministry of Economics)
- Space and cultural heritage: National Museum of History and Art (MNHA)
- Raising awareness for cultural and scientific heritage as part of ICT-integration strategy in primary and secondary schools
- European Group on MUseum Statistics (EGMUS)

Opportunities and tools for future developments

- Programs from the European Commission
Horst FORSTER/Patricia MANSON, European Commission - DG Information Society, Cultural Heritage Applications – Unit Learning and Cultural Heritage
- Multilingualism perspectives
Bernard SMITH, European Commission - DG Information Society, Cultural Heritage Applications
- Minerva tools for the follow-up
Rossella CAFFO, Project manager MINERVA – MiBAC, Italy

17:00: Round table

17:30: End

Wednesday 22nd June 2005

08:30-09:00: Registration.

09:00-09:15: Introduction: Presentation of the DAP and the operational approach; Introduce the NRG expert workgroup and invite for proposal by the audience

Session 1 Users and content

09:15-10:30

Session 2 Economic sustainability

10:30-11:45

Session 3 Technological developments and tools

11:45-13:00

13:00-14:30: Lunch buffet

Session 4 Digital memory preservation

14:30-15:45

15:45-16:30: Conclusions

16:30-17:00: Paul HELMINGER Mayor of Luxembourg City

17:00: End